16-17 fév. 2018, Oxford : Culture and Late Medieval Ecclesiastical Courts

On 16th and 17th February 2018, the Music and Late Medieval European Court Cultures team will follow up on their successful 2017 workshop with a study day focussing on the particularities of ecclesiastical courts.

The study day will examine several aspects of this theme, aiming to provide fresh insight through interdisciplinary discussion of topics such as courts in papal Avignon, and the courtly life of Teutonic Order. Provisional speakers are as follows :

Friday 16th afternoon - St Luke's Chapel, Radcliffe Observatory Quarter, Oxford
Prof. Werner Paravicini (Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel)

Saturday 17th morning - Margaret Thatcher Centre, Somerville College, Oxford
Prof. Andreas Bihrer (Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel)

Saturday 17th afternoon - Margaret Thatcher Centre, Somerville College, Oxford
Prof. Étienne Anheim (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris)
